OUR ANNUAL HARVEST SALE

BEGINS TOMORROW, TUESDAY,

A Tremendous Outpouring of New Fall Goods

At Prices That Mean a Saving of Thousands of Dollars to the Public of Western Connecticut

Twice each year, at the beginning of each season, Dorsen's holds a great sale. The Fall event is Our Annual Harvest Sale. We do not wait until the end of the season to hold this Sale, but hold it at the very beginning, when people want goods most. It is the Dorsen policy to give our customers the goods they want, when they want them, and at lower prices than they can buy them for at any other time or place.

It would be difficult to overstate the magnitude of the savings of this Sale. The entire resources of the great Dorsen organization are utilized to make this Sale beyond competition. Our buyers have been busy for months preparing for this great event. They have searched the markets, making selections with especial care, and by anticipating market conditions they have secured concessions that have filled this great store in every department with large stocks of seasonable merchandise, at great savings. The Sale is appropriately named a Harvest Sale. It is a real harvest for our customers because the savings are on bright, new goods, the pick of the very latest styles, priced far below the prevailing market value today.

We invite the entire public of Bridgeport and of all Western Connecticut to come to this Sale and take advantage of the great bargains it offers. It will be an occasion worthy of the attention of all who value economy.

The bargains included in this announcement are only a small part of the savings in the Annual Harvest Sale. The whole store is filled with them. Check your selections from this list. Come early to secure them before stocks are broken. Watch the daily newspapers for new bargains that will be added.
